Description

18 ct white gold ring (French "eagle head" hallmark), French workmanship circa 1990, set with approximately 0.50 ct of pavé modern-cut diamonds. This refined white gold ring features a delicate openwork pattern inspired by traditional paisley (cashmere) textiles, with graceful curves and balanced symmetry. Its flowing design combines the exotic softness of oriental motifs with the geometric harmony of Art Deco inspiration, creating a luminous and elegant presence on the hand. Finely crafted and beautifully polished, the ring showcases modern-cut diamonds precisely set to enhance its brilliance. 18 ct white gold - French eagle head hallmark French workmanship, circa 1990. Total weight: 6.05 g. Diamonds: approx. 0.50 ct total (modern cut). Width: 1.2 cm. Size: 54.
