Description

THE CAMP OF CHALONS circa 1860
Exceptional game published in the years 1857 - 1860 when the creation of Camp Chalons by the Emperor Napoleon III. It contains about thirty soldiers, famous characters or scenes in paper cut allowing the realization of multiple dioramas on this famous camp which lasted from 1857 to 1870. Some tears and lacks with the cuttings which stand up thanks to small pieces of wood glued to the back (some missing). It is impossible to say if the whole is complete or if there were more characters The box in very good condition has a superb lithography of BOMMIER printed by H. JANNIN in Paris and edited by H. ROUSSEAU. 47 X 35 cm Of the greatest rarity.
