Description

This beautiful cube-shaped box is in cracked earthenware with a cream background and a motif of stylized flowers in low relief enhanced with silver. The grip and the edge of the cover are also embellished with silver but speckled. On the top of the box we can notice a slight discoloration and some tiny chips on the corners. The box is signed with the Primavera France stamp and can be attributed to the Faïence manufacture of Sainte Radegonde. For more information, please feel free to contact us.
