2 850 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Height : 24,5 cm

Description

England XVIII century.

Condiment service in molten silver, chiselled and pierced with decoration of palmettes, tracery and friezes of pearls. The frame is of perforated shape bringing together five compartments with rounded sides in curved corners for burettes and bottles. It has a screw tray resting on five supports formed by laurel garlands and medallions and a central socket screwed in the form of a fluted rod with flanges ending in an openwork ring with counter-curves. The set has kept its five original faceted cut crystal bottles, each with its own non-interchangeable cap at the ends in twisted buttons. The central face is cartouche engraved with initials under the crown of the Marquis.
