19 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Length : 105cm

Diameter : 91cm

Description

Large basket chandelier with 12 arms of light in gilded bronze (and gilded with mat) and crystal from the end of the Empire period (around 1815). Putti and lyre decor, lightning bolt patterns and swan neck light arms. High quality carving.

Condition report: Restored in our workshop in December 2019. 19 crystals replaced. Central electrification refreshed. Modification on the central rod (during the first electrification around 1920), drilled drills (no thread was drilled). Old restoration and normal wear and tear to the gilding.

Very good state of conservation.
