Description

Bisque clock and finely chiseled gilt bronze ornaments, representing a very young woman picking fruit near a tree in which is wrapped a threatening snake, representation of Eve seduced by the tempting snake in the Garden of Eden, enamelled dial with Roman numerals, from the first part of the 19th century. This clock is in good condition and is of good quality. The movement works, we have the pendulum but not the key. A note: some stains on the biscuit, light stains also on the bronze in places, tiny micro-chips on the enamel of the dial, scratches and wear of time, see photos.
