Description

Well, on the one hand, it proves that there is still room for great discoveries in this profession ! Characteristic of the achievements of the years 20/30, this large extremely decorative sheet measures 45 X 54 cm, it is the work of a certain Georges Perrin who for once signed very legibly but who is completely unknown to dictionaries and the Internet while the artist's fine profession is manifest. From there to think that it could be a pseudonym of someone more famous ... I bought this beautiful watercolor Sunday morning, presented in a naughty new frame that I hastened to remove, to see if there was no other information on the back of the sheet, and the only indication was the title: "The flower cottage" which was precisely the one I wanted to give him! Very good condition, mounted in a master
