Description

French pendulum clock mid 19th century, with red lacquered and painted wooden case. The watch is marked on the dial with the inscription "A. Blondeau à Castillon" Ringing working and key to the original charge. The case is painted with floral and fruit motifs. The central glass allows to observe the movement of the pendulum. The small crack does not affect the integrity of the glass. Working, only needs revision. On request we provide quote for replacement of the glass and revision of the clock.
