Description

Queen Louis XVI armchair, flat back and wide seat. This charming seat rests on four tapered and fluted legs. The crosspieces are straight and molded, connected to each other by connecting dices, and carved with a decoration of flowers on the forelegs. The square-shaped backrest is also molded around its entire periphery. The trim is old, the straps seem to be original and are still in good condition, thus retaining maximum authenticity. The fabric is posterior but quite old, it has a few spots but the whole gives a lot of charm. Seat height 42 cm Please contact us for delivery costs.
