

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Vases, Anglo Irish Cut Crystal Glass, 18th Century

650 EUR

Signature : Bristol

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Crystal

Diameter : 8,5cm

Height : 19,5cm

Description

Here is a beautiful pair of vases, crystal or blown lead glass, (each of the pieces includes bubbles) the exterior entirely cut deeply with a hand wheel, Piedouche square, originally intended to be mounted bronze, (style Matthew Boulton?), The body in a baluster, curved shape is cut of hollowed gadroons, the shoulder then the neck with diamond points. The border is indented and wavy.

Typical work of Bristol in the 18th century, you will find some of them among our fellow Anglo Saxon Antiquaries who make a big deal of it

Condition: Excellent, no cracks, no shine., A small point or two ground on the top edge, so no visible defect.

Dimensions: 19.5cm x 8.5cm approximately.

Insured Colissimo shipment from France, Tel:

Dealer

Eclecticnimes

Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,

Tel : +33665241111

Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

0665241111