Pair of Longwy enamel bowls. decor: crested birds
Artist Rolande Rizzi

Entered Earthenware in 1944 and cultivated a multitude of decorations and gave free rein to his inspiration while cultivating the style specific to the Japanese tradition of Longwy. She will create many decorations of Greek scenes, jungle, exotic birds while also making more modest decorations for ashtrays or cake dishes. She will sign more than five thousand different pieces in five years. She left Earthenware on August 31, 1949.
