Description

19th century polychrome porcelain and gilded bronze Francia Louis XVI style perfume burner

Size: H 29 x diameter 13.5 cm; base 9.5 x 9.5 cm

Refined polychrome porcelain perfume burner, in the shape of potiche, painted with refined geometric decorations in gold on a light magenta red background and splendid bouquet of flowers. The base and the band of the perforated lid, with foliate motifs and ornamental ribbons, are in engraved and gilded bronze. Made in France in the 19th century in Louis XVI style, it's inspired by the famous porcelain of Sèvres manufacture.

A perfume burner is an object usually composed of a container in which odorous essences are
