

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Porcelain Biscuit Cup And Vase With Marquise De Sévigné

160 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Large Paris Porcelain breakfast cup, first half of the 19th century LP gold monogram Hollow mark under the base Perfect condition except slight wear on the gilding The cup: Height - 9.5 cm, diameter - 11 cm The saucer: diameter - 17.5 cm Biscuit vase in Golden Porcelain, Paris, early 20th century. Brand "Collection of the Marquise de Sévigné" under the base Perfect condition, Height - 10 cm, diameter - 20 cm Price - 160 euros without delivery. Delivery in secure packaging. For shipping to Europe and the rest of the world, please contact us, thank you. For shipping to Europe and the rest of the world, please contact us, thank you. MARQUISE DE SÉVIGNÉ A family history since 1890 In the 1890s, the couple decided to start making chocolate and bought a room in Royat. The Great

Dealer

Antik Elite

Objets d'art, arts décoratifs, tableaux du XIXème et XXème siècle

Mobile : 06 19 47 49 05

L'Herbergement 85260

Chocolate Factory in the center is launched. The genius idea of Auguste and Clémentine is to stand out from industrial production. Make quality products and present them pleasantly in their own shops. Early marketing. After a first address in Royat, two followed in Vichy and success was there. Clementine does not fail to ensure the promotion of his production in literary salons and among people of good society. But there is still a lack of real recognition for these chocolates of excellence. Fate is going to turn history upside down. In 1900, Edmond Rostand, then at the height of his glory, attended the Vichy opera at a performance of his Cyrano de Bergerac. Clementine wishes to send him a box of his finest chocolates and inquires about the place where he went down. At the Pavillon Sévigné, we reply. Clementine takes the name of her brand: A la Marquise de Sévigné.