MARCUS: furniture carpenter who ran a factory in Paris, he was on rue Amelot between 1827 and 1842 - but already under the Consulate and the Empire, he had invented a sofa with arched cheeks that bore his name. At the exhibition at the Pavillon de Marsan in 1930, there was a pair of lemon tree chairs from the Château des Tuileries.

JALLOT Alexandre: manufacturer of chairs, armchairs and furnishings. He successively
