Description

Important cartel in Boulle marquetry with brown tortoiseshell and brass from the Regency period. The cornice is surmounted by a figure of time, arched, leafy feet, the facade with a large cut shell. The dial is made up of twelve enameled cartridges and a central plate is chiseled with a trophy, horns of plenty, scientific instruments and signed in an I. JACOB ENDERLIN IN BASEL cartridge. The movement was revised by a specialist and the exhaust changed. It rings for hours and a half. 18th century period.
