cartoonist in the local press. Painter of Rouenneries par excellence, he is inspired by various facts. Without going as far as caricature, his pochades, sometimes a bit satirical, sum up by themselves with virtuosity the subject treated. It is the term "columnist" that probably best defines Pierre Le Trividic. His work is nothing other than a story, established day by day during almost the forty years that were his career. Open to all artistic expressions, he is also an illustrator of works, poster designer, engraver ... He decorates the walls of the Gambetta pool and those of the mixed cargo ship "Le Rouennais", designs the garden of the Oissel Municipal Park or the stained glass windows of the chapel of the Dieppe hospital.
