Description

Large Louis XV style console, from the XIXth century, in carved wood with green gray relaquer. Decor in a belt of garlands of scalloped flowers, stylized acanthus leaves on the sides. The gray marble streak veined with white is a corbin beak, a restoration on the tray. (See photos.) Openwork uprights with garlands and foliage, winding feet joined by a shell spacer. Some chips on the paint. Traces of gilding under the paint suggest that it was originally gilded. Feel free to contact me for more information. H.: 86 cm W.: 126 cm P.: 64 cm
