Description

Oil on canvas representing "Le quai à Cassis", signed lower right by Marc Cénac and countersigned and titled on the back, framed. Size without frame 46 * 38.5 cm and with frame 66 * 57 cm. Marc Cénac, French painter (1920-2004) Marc Cénac has been painting since the age of 15. Its artistic heritage is considerable, because accumulated over more than 65 years. From 1971 to 1985 he attended the Académie de la Grande Chaumière and the sculpture workshops of Montparnasse. Preciously preserved, his work is immense, because the artist only exhibited and sold part of his work made from 1985. He had to find a roof for his paintings, his drawings, his charcoals, his sanguines, his sculptures. Marc Cénac, without an heir, decided to create his Foundation and bequeath his work to him.
