Description

Pair of Medici vases in Paris porcelain from the Restoration Empire period, with rotating decoration of oriental palaces, foot collar and gold handles, work from the years 1820-1825.

The set is in a beautiful state of conservation, the gilding is still very fresh despite some wear, note: two small chips on one of the two vases (I can, if you wish, request a quote from my restaurateur for obtain an excellent result). Rare model due to its rotating decor of oriental palaces, a very colorful and lively whole. H: 28 cms
