Like any self-respecting art dealer, I have always loved buying workshop funds...
I have had quite a few in my career that of Paul Audra with a J9 truck full of paintings, sometimes over two meters , watercolors and drawings, to that of Micheline Leichnamm, miniature artist: a shoe box !
From time to time, I find some lost in the middle of my cartons of drawings, like these four works by Petitjean, which I do not know who he could be, the closest, although technically very different could be Hippolyte as works of youth, but
