Description

Oil on original old canvas placed on a wooden panel. Portrait of Democritus "Le philosophet" painted by Antoine Coypel, French school (1661-1722). The composition is very well known because there is a rectangle version at the Louvre Museum. Other versions are recorded, because the artist has made several versions. The handling and processing indicate the probable execution during the 18th century, and establishes a comparison with Antoine Coypel (1661-1722) and the production of the Coypel family.
