Description

Homage to Fernand ROLLAND 1920/2004

Plastic artist and poet

By Jeanine RIVAIS

"Like all creators" of ART RECUP "Fernand ROLLAND testifies to the obsessive pleasure of the gleaner collecting the most familiar objects as well as the most heterogeneous (blunderbuss, boxes sardines, butterflies, casts of feet, glasses, etc.) rejected by others; to assemble them, to make unexpected or daring connections; confer on its "mounted pieces" (in the literal sense), on this treasure of the poor child, an outmoded beauty, a humor and a strangeness very provocative
