Description

REGAGNON André: 1902-1976; Grows up in Saint Girons (Ariège) where his father and uncle Albert run a trade in draperies and hangings. His maternal grandfather being a craftsman framer, he has many relationships with the painters of the time and goes very young towards painting Thus, after having studied at the School of Fine Arts in Toulouse and Paris, his path crossed that of the Saint Gironde master Joseph Berges with whom he perfected his talent. His work earned him numerous awards Oil on canvas representing SAINT LIZIER (Ariège) signed lower right
