Description

Emancipation through travel. The first paid holidays, the first holidays reserved for people who could and had the means. The boat, the trains ... inspire progress. This character was dedicated as a gift to those who could not yet afford to leave. The brest good d annotation, the disproportions, and the caricatures between the fisherman and the boat attest to this. It is numbered and very rare because this souvenir has traveled and has significant proportions for the time. Possible delivery not included in the price.
