Description

Red lacquered corner cabinet made in Venice in the first half of the 1700s.
The small corner cupboard is decorated with relief designs inspired by typically Chinese landscapes as they were then in vogue in the many imitations of oriental lacquers.
The shoulders and the door are wavy and the feet turned.
To open the door there was probably a wooden knob
later replaced by lock with key.
In a good state of conservation, it needs minor adjustments.
The sides, at the point of contact with the wall, measure 47 cm
