Description

This stained-glass window depicts a cattle egret in front of a body of water. It is surrounded by irises and rushes, and a bird flies overhead. This scene is highlighted by a red border.The stained-glass window is composed of clear and colored glass of varying textures. Technically, it is a skillful blend of Art Nouveau and Art Deco.It has recently been restored, and most of the cracks have been repaired. They are therefore still visible and may give the impression that the breaks are still present.The wooden frame is original and measures 101 x 167 cm.The stained-glass window measures 86 x 151 cm.It dates from the early 20th century and is in very good condition.
