

Plat Japonisant

Description

Large earthenware dish with Japanese decor, in the style of engravings from Okusai.

Decor of a nature scene where a man carves a wooden horse, a hut at the edge of a spring, two nightingales on a branch of cherry blossom, the white circle in the center represents the sun crushing this quasi desert. Mount Fuji present in a fan-shaped cartridge.

This dish is in perfect condition, note only the restoration of a cross-stitch discreetly concealed in a cherry blossom.

Very beautiful decorative ceramic.
