Description

Oil on canvas from the mid-twentieth century representing a Thai woman. Pierre Donadio is a painter of the sarthe, who has never sold in theaters, so no artificial rating. He went around the world with the sculptor Paul Belmondo and brought back from his travels sketches which he expressed on canvas. Superb technique, great mastery of colors. These frames were custom-made and in keeping with the style of painting 5 label carved by hand on the back of the frame. His paintings were relatively expensive, the table presented had been sold around 15,000 at the time. Perfect condition for the whole
