HALLE Charles (1867/1924)

Charles Hallé happens in Creuse at the end of the 19th century, he frequent Ernest Hareux Jeannot, Humblot. He practiced the same style of painting: the naturalistic realism of fine quality. But above all meeting Armand Guillaumin and Eugene Alluaud and it is they who influence the painter to move towards Impressionism and work from nature. Charles Hallé apply these lessons and now the artist's compositions will be bathed in a beautiful light that will capture lavishly. Landscape, it becomes a member of the
