Description

Impressive and large Yad - Torah pointer in solid silver, for reading the Torah.

Frequently considered a hidur mitzvah ("embellishment of command") for reading the Torah.
Russian goldsmithery of the end of the XIXth century.
Strong symbols: The lion of Judah, and the star of David as well as three levite rabbis.

-The Lion of Judah originates from the book of Genesis in which the lion is the emblem of the tribe of Judah, one of the twelve tribes of Israel.
- The Star of David represents, according to Jewish tradition, the emblem of king David and would also be the symbol of the Messiah
