

Nils Thorsson "marselis" Royal Copenhagen Bowl

250 EUR

Signature : Nils Thorsson

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sandstone

Diameter : 12cm

Height : 9cm

Description

Nils Thorsson stoneware bowl by Nils Thorsson for Alumina Royal Copenhagen factory (Denmark), "Marselis" series, friezes decor in blue enameled bas relief. 50's.

Perfect condition

Height 9cm

Diameter 12cm

Signature MARSELIS and monograms of Nils Thorsson and Alumina, numbered 2644

About...

Nils Thorsson (1898-1975)

Swedish-Danish ceramic artist and designer, Nils Johan Thorvald Thorsson has created a prolific work for ceramic manufacturer Royal Copenhagen. Thorsson was the most prolific designer in the factory, designing at least five of the company's best-known production lines,

Dealer

Cornershop Design

20th Century Design

Tel : 0622750609

Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

including Solberg (1930s); Marselis (Alumina, 1950s), an elegant but affordable line for everyday use; Tenera (1960s); Baca (1960s), with very detailed and complex relief patterns; and Diana (1970s). His work is often presented as an example of mid-century Danish modernism in the field of design and ceramics.