O Poprawe (For Improvement). At that time many Polish artists of his generation center around him3. In the 1980s, he participated in the creation of the multidisciplinary artistic group Swiat (World). In the 1990s, he stayed in France where he founded the artistic association ARA (Association for the Renewal of Art). With members of all these artistic groups over the years he has organized numerous exhibitions of modern art in Poland and France. Since 1991, he has worked as an art teacher at the University of Varmie-Mazurie in Olsztyn. He lives in Warsaw. He has produced more than 50 individual exhibitions and participated in more than 200 group exhibitions. His works are part of the collections of museums in Poland and public and private collections around the world.
