Description

Jean Louis PAGUENAUD (1876-1952).
official painter of the French Navy.

Oil on cardboard, framed, representing a seascape
at dusk, which gives a very special light.

There are three warships, not far from a rocky mountain, it is most likely in view of other paintings by this artist from the Strait of Gibraltar.

In the sky, storm clouds and other lines that cross
them in all directions.

The wind seems to lift the dust that haloes the mountain.

Signed lower left: Jean Louis Paguenaud.

Jean Louis Paguenaud (1876-1952) was a pupil of Bouguerau at the school of fine arts in Bordeaux.
