Description

Gilt bronze table mirror
Empire Period - Restauration
First quarter of the 19th century

The handle, with palm-shaped stem mounted on a base of three lion legs, is composed of five elements perfectly adjusted by a threaded rod.

The mirror frame is held in place by two tail-shaped screws and arrowheads.

Patinated bronze base.

Very beautiful original gilding, with signs of wear on the handle. The gilding of the mirror frame and its support is remarkably fresh.

Very good condition.
