Description

POLYCHROME TORCHER HOLDER Very beautiful posture for this character, 18th century torch holder holder. He is standing on a base in the shape of a cloud, adorned with the head of a cherub. Nice work of draping in the costume which has kept its polychromy. The expressive face is framed by long, curly hair. The right hand is placed on the heart, the left carries the flare. The sculpture is executed in the round in a single piece of wood except on the top of the flare. Do not hesitate to contact me for further information or for delivery. Period: 18th century Condition: Good condition Material: Polychrome and gilded wood Width: 38 cm Height: 90 cm Depth: 25 cm
