Description

18th Century, Italian Walnut Wood Bureau Chest of DrawerThis Bureau Chest of Drawer was made in Emilia (Italy) at the beginning of the 18th century. The structure is entirely paved in the precious wood essence of walnut and walnut root. The upper portion has a door that opens to the fore to show inside a compartment divided into six drawers. There is also a secret, which is fulfilled by running the support plan.The front then has three drawers equipped with door locks and handles in chiselled bronze.The cabinet rests on a band that front is interrupted to create two feet, a feature that gives elegance and lightness to the compositional line.The walnut veneer is applied playing on the different designs of the wood and this gives the furniture a refined chromatic effect of great decorative.This flap is
