Description

French work, 18th century Small chest of drawers, 18th century with central projection in rosewood, mahogany and rosewood veneer underlined with framing nets. Opening in front two drawer without cross, rounded uprights ended by arched feet shod with gilded bronze hooves. Dressed in its original marble, keyholes, handles and falls in gilded bronze, furniture with a few wrinkles of time. Stamped by Philippe-Ambroise SAUVAGE, established in Paris Rue de Montmartre around the beginning of the reign of Louis XVI. The furniture repository bought him several marquetry chests of drawers for the Queen's apartments in Versailles and Compiègne.
