Description

A superb 17th-century mirror crafted from gilt and painted wood, featuring its original patina with a subtle black hue over the gilding, adding a unique character and depth to this antique piece. The simple ovolo molding, lightly guilloche-carved, frames the original mirror glass, whose aged mercury reflects the charm of centuries past. The back panel remains intact and original, preserving the authenticity and integrity of this historic object.

With its harmonious dimensions of 44 cm in width and 55 cm in height, this mirror is an elegant addition to any refined interior, adding a touch of classic sophistication. The simplicity of its lines, combined with the richness of its patina, makes it an exceptional decorative item, ideal for
