Description

Flowers artwork, oil painting, floral painting which represents Vase Of Roses.

It also has an original frame realised in the 1900s.

Oil on Wood-faesite, Masonite and Faesite are two materials which were used in the first Half of the XX century as base for paintings.

Artists used them because they were cheaper than canvas and they were resistant, too.

The oil on canvas painting dates back to the early twentieth Century and it takes part of Bisgart Collection of Antique Paintings of the 20th Century.

This floral oil painting is signed by Noel Canepa, french painter.

Still life with flowers represents a beautiful bouquet of flowers, rich and colorful.
