Description

Remarkable portrait of an ecclesiastic dated 1661, signed on the back by the artist C. Bouloigne. The inscription indicates that the subject is Philippüm Henaïs, aged 42, a member of the Aix-en-Provence aristocracy. This high-quality painting portrays a young prelate with meticulous attention to detail, highlighting the dignity and social status of the sitter.

The portrait is presented in its original 17th-century gilded wood frame, finely carved, which enhances the overall appearance and adds an element of prestige to the piece. The dimensions of the painting are 54 cm x 68 cm unframed, and 70 cm x 83 cm with the frame.
