Description

Striking vintage 18k yellow gold brooch, featuring a richly detailed leaf motif, typical of high-end botanical jewelry from the 1980s. While the finely worked texture and interplay of matte and polished gold are reminiscent of Buccellati, the artistic spirit of this piece is closer to that of Gilbert Albert, the celebrated Swiss jeweler known for his organic forms and nature-inspired goldwork. The brooch plays on surface contrast: textured gold leaves catch the light alongside high-polish accents, giving it a lifelike, sculptural quality. Total weight: 17.3 grams Length: 5 cm Maximum width: 5 cm Free worldwide shipping An elegant and collectible statement brooch, echoing the naturalistic elegance of 1980s designer jewelry, ideal for vintage connoisseurs and botanical design lovers.
