Description

Double old door from a bourgeois house from the flourishing industrial period in the late 19th century.

Monumental door height 323 cm width 252 cm.

All in good condition, straight and rigid because the uprights are thick. No structural defect. Bottom of door to resume as usual for old entrance doors. The upper windows are bevelled and present. The other glazings are to be brought according to your wish.

Superb atmospheric material to close a large outbuilding.
