Description

Lady's secretary in Louis XVI style with cut-off facade. Inlaid in rosewood and rosewood cross-pieces, it looks like a weekly planner, but discovers a secretary flap with a niche veneered in light wood (maple and pear fillets) with four small drawers with knobs. The lower register is occupied by three superimposed drawers fitted with locks. We will notice the original dimensions of a very narrow piece of furniture which is capped with veined marble.

Presence of ornamental bronzes (keyholes, pulling rings, scraps and lamp bases) of good quality.

Work from the Faubourg Saint-Antoine dating from the end of the 19th century.

Presence of the seal of the decoration house "Mercier Frères" on the back of the furniture.
