Old Sarough carpet, measuring 130 cm wide for a length of 185 cm from Iran in wool and silk. The colors remain very fresh, the carpet is beautiful and shiny and has two old restorations that are hardly visible. The Saroughs are very resistant and have an excellent reputation for solidity. Our classic style copy presents a great wealth of patterns and colors. Its medallion fits perfectly with the graceful interlacing covering the field. The Sarough carpet, also known as Hamadan, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is the place of production of some villages and some European buying houses have agencies there. Many of these carpets are nicknamed hamadan by traders, in particular the passing carpets, many of which are made in this region. Sometimes these carpets have distinct identities and this type is the
