A Napoleon III Maché Paper Tray

1 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bel état

Material : Other

Width : 77

Height : 62

Depth : 3.5

Description

A Tray In Paper Maché Napoleon III, decorated with friezes of flowers

Paper maché is a construction material composed of several strips of paper to which we sometimes add pieces of textile to make it more solid, which are assembled by a wet glue - wallpaper glue type -

When the glue dries, the object thus formed hardens, becomes very resistant and retains its shape.

Dealer

Galerie Saint-Martin

Antics, Furniture, Paintings, Fine art

Tel : 01-42-60-83-65

5 et 11 rue des Saints-Pères

Paris 75006