

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Carle Vernet

280 EUR

Signature : Carle Vernet

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

Genuine Original Antique Available for sale is an original aquatint After Carle Vernet (Carle Antoine-Charles-Horace), (1758-1836) entitled Cheval anglais partant pour la course; pair by Lefèvre- Marchand. 1797, full page no holes . defects, bad creases etc .A fine hunting print after one of the greatest French horse painters of the 19th century Vernet was a member of a prominent family of French painters. His father was a well-known marine painter, but his son, Carle Vernet, rose to fame under the empire with his drawings of the Italian campaign and his paintings The Battle of Marengo and Morning of Austerlitz. Under the Restoration he was popular as a lithographer and painter of dogs, horses, racing and scenes of the hunt. His son Émile Jean Horace Vernet, 1789-1863 went on to become

Dealer

Fourrel de Frettes

Antiquites de le Breche, Bazas 33430

Mobile : 06 07 34 10 82

7 rue Théophile Serviere, Bazas 33430

Bazas 33430

one of the most popular military painters of the 19th century. Size: 46 x 58 cm.