Description

Description:

chiseled bronze and white marble.

Each potpourri has a triangular base with arched edges and projections.

The body of the potpourri rests on three lion paws and a central twist.

The feet end in drooping berries.

The cover adorned with a vegetal floret turns around to reveal a binet decorated with guillochages.

The bronze crown that supports the lid is pierced with a frieze of cutouts for use in potpourri.

Usually the reversible casseroles are only used as lighting, with a second use the models are rare.

We are in the quality of delicate carving and a
