Description

Beautiful blown glass candy or cookie box with enamelled decoration and brass frame.

 Art Nouveau period, circa 1880-1900 **

Height: 12 cm / Diameter: 11 cm / Weight: 307 g

The cover decorated with a very pretty painted and enamelled decoration in strong relief of pansies on a green mound.

The satin glass body is vitrified in a tender water green color, its rim decorated with alternating pansy buttons in different colors. Its upper part has a brilliant frieze of purple color, the eventful lower part of which is delimited by outline of ivory enamel.

The frame is in formerly gilded brass but today weathered by time, the hinge requires a small intervention which is being carried out by a professional, therefore do not take into account
