1 200 EUR

Signature : G. BELOTTI

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Rare suite of 4 spaghetti bar stools by G. BELOTTI from the 1980s. Giandomenico Belotti is an Italian designer and architect born in 1922. He quickly developed a passion for town planning, research, restoration and design. In 1979, he began a collaboration with the furniture manufacturer Alias and created the famous Spaghetti chair, in steel and PVC. This stool rests on 4 tubular steel legs reinforced under the seat by cross members. The seat, backrest and footrest are made of a winding of translucent PVC wire. Quality work in excellent condition.
