Description

Description :Chiseled and gilded bronze.These large sconces have five lights in a semicircle. They are made up of a tangle of naturalistic motifs of foliage and scrolls, a detailed design rich in detail but elegant without heaviness.Five-light half-crown wall lights are very uncommon, they are prestige lights in this case. The arms emerge from leaves and end in a vegetal corolla, a large binet in swirling leaves bears a large, very ornate bobèche as well.The patterns are confronted for each sconce, and the details such as the flowers for example are different, the naturalistic patterns also have their own design on each sconce and the counter cups with their complex design are also different from each other, from the level of great creations from the Louis XV period.Each piece is stamped with a
